MESSAGE FROM THE POPE FOR HIS VISIT TO THE UNITED KINGDOM VATICAN CITY, 8 SEP 2010

During last Wednesday's general audience, Benedict XVI read an English-language message for his forthcoming visit to the United Kingdom, due to take place from 16 to 19 September.

"I am very much looking forward to my visit to the United Kingdom in a week's time and I send heartfelt greetings to all the people of Great Britain. I am aware that a vast amount of work has gone into the preparations for the visit, not only by the Catholic community but by the Government, the local authorities in Scotland, London and Birmingham, the communications media and the security services, and I want to say how much I appreciate the efforts that have been made to ensure that the various events planned will be truly joyful celebrations. Above all I thank the countless people who have been praying for the success of the visit and for a great outpouring of God's grace upon the Church and the people of your nation. It will be a particular joy for me to beatify the Venerable John Henry Newman in Birmingham on Sunday 19 September. This truly great Englishman lived an exemplary priestly life and through his extensive writings made a lasting contribution to Church and society both in his native land and in many other parts of the world. It is my hope and prayer that more and more people will benefit from his gentle wisdom and be inspired by his example of integrity and holiness of life. I look forward to meeting representatives of the many different religious and cultural traditions that make up the British population, as well as civil and political leaders. I am most grateful to Her Majesty the Queen and to His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury for receiving me, and I look forward to meeting them. While I regret that there are many places and people I shall not have the opportunity to visit, I want you to know that you are all remembered in my prayers. God bless the people of the United Kingdom!"

Home Mission Sunday 2010: Celebrate and Witness. Next Sunday is Home Mission Sunday and this year it falls within the historic visit of Pope Benedict XVI to the United Kingdom, and on the same day that Cardinal Newman will be beatified. The Sunday is dedicated to the spread of the Gospel in England and Wales. The second collection will support the work of Home Mission. Funds raised last year have helped to make possible substantial outreach work in support of the Papal Visit. During the year ahead, the collection will help to build on the fruits of Pope Benedict's coming. The money raised will also support the work of the Catholic Enquiry Office as a national point of contact for faith enquirers. For further information about the work of Home Mission see: www.catholicchurch.org.uk and www.thepapalvisit.org.uk

WORD OF LIFE

I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven (Mt 18:22)

This sentence calls to mind the biblical song of Lamech, a descendant of Adam: 'If Cain is avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy-sevenfold' (Gen. 4:24). Thus hatred began to spread among the people of the world, swelling like a river in flood. Against this spreading of evil, Jesus proposes the unlimited and unconditional forgiveness that is capable of breaking the cycle of violence. Only forgiveness can stem this tide of mayhem and offer the human race a future that is not self-destruction.

Prayer for the Papal Visit to the UK

God of truth and love, your Son, Jesus Christ, stands as the light to all who seek you with a sincere heart. As we strive with your grace to be faithful in word and deed, may we reflect the kindly light of Christ and offer a witness of hope and peace to all. We pray for Pope Benedict and look forward with joy to his forthcoming visit that he may be a witness to the unity and hope which is your will for all people. We make our prayer through Christ Our Lord. Amen
