Home Mission Sunday 2010: Celebrate and Witness - today is Home Mission Sunday which falls within the historic visit of Pope Benedict XVI to the United Kingdom, and on the same day that Cardinal Newman will be beatified. The Sunday is dedicated to the spread of the Gospel in England and Wales. The second collection will support the work of Home Mission. Funds raised last year have helped to make possible substantial outreach work in support of the Papal Visit. During the year ahead, the collection will help to build on the fruits of the Pope Benedict's coming. A series of follow up events and initiatives are diarised. The money raised today will also support the work of the Catholic Enquiry Office as a national point of contact for faith enquirers. For further information about the work of Home Mission see: www.catholicchurch.org.uk and www.thepapalvisit.org.uk

Ground work Day. We are going to be carrying out some work in the Church grounds on Saturday 9th October and need willing volunteers. Start at 10am and hopefully finish around 1pm. Many hands make light work!

Ethel Singo will be speaking to the gathering in Hyde Park during the Pope's visit. Here is what she will say:

My name is Ethel Singo. I was born in Malawi and I am an asylum seeker. Since 2003, my family and I have experienced God's love through the community of St Mary's Roman Catholic Church, in Leyland, Lancashire. The love and support of this community have sustained us through many ordeals. Last year, we were arrested in a dawn raid and taken to a detention centre, where my children suffered terribly. We hope that the church will join the many voices against the inhumane treatment of children in immigration removal centres. Our parish priests visited us, but were not allowed to say mass for us. So each Sunday morning, Father Jonathan connected us through Skype to the mass celebrated in our parish church, and our children would sing along with the Our Father. This gave us strength. We knew we were not alone in our distress in a foreign country. When we were about to be sent back to Africa, at the airport God opened a way where there had seemed to be no way and, by a miracle, we were able to stay. I have seen God's love, unity and compassion. We have experienced love and support just as it was in the Early Church. I have felt so much closer to God and have become a full member of the Catholic Church. When I was received into the church, I was humbled to learn that another lady was being received as a result of the compassion shown to us in our trials. I am privileged to be part of the Catholic Church. God bless you all.

Three volunteers from the Knights of St Columba will be assisting as stewards for the Holy Father's visit to Cofton Park in Birmingham. They will be on duty from Saturday evening to Sunday afternoon. We pray they will have safe journeys (and also manage some sleep). The KSC are donating £250 to the Diocesan costs of the visit of his Holiness.

Papal Visit Sunday morning from 9.30am till it finishes, we hope to have the Papal Mass from Cofton Park Birmingham displayed on the screen in Church. Anyone is welcome. If there are a few we can transfer to our library where there is a big screen.

WORD OF LIFE

I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven (Mt 18:22)

To forgive, to forgive always. Forgiving is not the same as forgetting, which often implies unwillingness to face reality. Forgiveness is not weakness in the sense of ignoring a wrong done for fear of the stronger person who committed it. Forgiveness does not mean saying that something does not matter when it is serious, or that something is good when it is bad. Forgiveness is not indifference. Forgiveness is a conscious act of will, and therefore a free act, which means welcoming our brothers and sisters as they are, despite the wrong done to us, just as God accepts us sinners, despite our faults. Forgiveness means not responding to one offence with another, but in doing what Paul tells us: 'Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good' (Rom 12:21).
