NEXT SUNDAY: 14th Sunday of the Year Sea Sunday.

From Sr. Veronica. My heartfelt thanks to all of you who have sent Mass cards, greetings, gifts etc. especially for all your prayers. I feel very humbled that so many of you turned out for the hour of prayer last Sunday organised by Joe Kealey. Many thanks Joe and all of you. I'm living in hope that soon I will be back to my ministry among you - a ministry which I greatly miss. I guess the Lord has His own plans - they certainly are not mine!! 'I thank my God each time I think of you and when I pray for you I pray with joy'. My love and prayers.

Next Sunday is Sea Sunday when we are invited to remember and pray for seafarers. They are truly strangers to our shores, for their lives and work are hidden from us and yet we depend totally upon them. The collection next weekend will be for the Apostleship of the Sea who visit, welcome and support seafarers while they are in port.

Advance Notice: on Sunday 22nd July there will be a double edition of this bulletin. It will return to a weekly print on Sunday 5th August.

WORD OF LIFE

For those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but for those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. (Mt 13:12)

Jesus says these words in answer to his disciples who ask him why he speaks in parables. He explains that it has not been given to everyone to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but only to those who are open, only to those who accept his words and live them.
