We would like to thank all those who helped to make it a success - Fr Paul, Fr John, the Altar Servers, organist, St John's Ambulance, the people known for their catering skills - the hospitality group, the drivers old and new to the team and most of all our guests. Thank you all.

International Aid Trust is looking for a furniture van driver. Please see advertisement on the Notice Board.

Staff leaving the High School Our High School loses Michael Wright our head-teacher who has been appointed to a bigger, school near where he lives (St Augustine's School Whalley 10 minutes away as opposed to an hour travelling to Leyland and where his own children are at school.) We are very grateful for his good leadership. Also leaving is Madame Gill Gray, a long-standing teacher at the School and head of Modern Languages. Also three other teachers, Chris Greenough (to be a Deputy head); Mike McKenna (to be a head of music) and Teresa Walsh (to a permanent job as a language teacher). Also David Martindale who is an IT technician. Every good wish to them all and thanks for their friendship and all done for our students.

WORD OF LIFE

For those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but for those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. (Mt 13:12)

Jesus is inviting us to open our hearts to the Word he came to proclaim, and he will call us to account for our response at the end of our lives. The gospel writings show us that the proclamation of this Word is the core of all Jesus' desires and actions.

Westminster World Reconciliation Prayer for the Olympics

O God of Forgiveness, you gave us your Son to reconcile us to you, so that we may know your peace.

We recall men and women down the ages whose stories have witnessed to your healing mercy.

We ask you to make London 2012 a special time of unity between peoples.

May all who visit find a welcome in our cities. Bless all those involved in the Games, so that together we may build a legacy of peace for the future.

We ask this through Jesus your Son, by the power of your Holy Spirit. Amen.
