Statement re Safeguarding failures involving Ampleforth Abbey, Ampleforth College, St Martin's Ampleforth and Ampleforth Parishes.

Ampleforth Abbey, Ampleforth College and St Martin's Ampleforth are committed to promoting the highest standards of safeguarding of children and adults at risk.

No apology can ever be adequate for the suffering that has been caused to those abused by monks and lay staff, in our schools and parishes, and from them we seek a forgiveness we do not deserve.

We feel a profound shame at the sacred trust we have betrayed, and a profound sorrow at the lasting damage inflicted by the actions of individuals and by our failures as a community to put the needs of each child first.

We are renewing our commitment to work in a transparent way with the statutory authorities. We are meeting with, and learning from, survivors of abuse, and in our community prayer and discussions we are discerning practical ways to enable a different, safer, future.

If you are a victim or survivor of abuse and would like to speak to someone, please contact our Safeguarding Coordinator, John Ridge, using any of the contact details below. You will be listened to and your concerns will be taken seriously and acted upon as necessary. If you would prefer not to speak to someone at Ampleforth, please contact Survive York on 0808 145 1890 or 01904 638813. They have trained counsellors available to talk to you in complete confidence.

OUR WAY OF LIFE We are fast approaching Lent a time for us to renew our spiritual life and to turn back to God.

A REFLECTION The lengthening of the days ushers in one of the 'purple times' of the year - the season of Lent, where the purple of the vestments is a sign of the expectation and the preparation needed for our great feast, the Triduum which celebrates the suffering, death and resurrection of the Lord. Let us spend the next ten days thinking what we could do this Lent.

WORD OF LIFE Seek peace, and pursue it" (Ps. 34:14) A sincere search for peace will also help us identify practices that can protect creation, which is also God's gift to his children and is entrusted to us to care for responsibly for future generations.

The Word of Life is available in full in the Narthex, in New City (free) in front of the Piety shop, and on the website.
