OUR WAY OF LIFE. God's Mercy is everlasting. Since our calling is to be united with God in this world and the next, Divine Mercy is for each person of good will as well.

A REFLECTION. The Word of God tells us today: "do not be afraid; it is I, the First and the Last....I am the Living One..I live for ever and ever and I hold the keys of death..."

WORD OF LIFE "So if I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet" (Jn. 13:14).

After these words, Jesus added, "For I have set you an example that you also should do as I have done to you. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them."¹

Reflecting on this phrase of the Gospel, Chiara Lubich wrote: "You are blessed...". The mutual service and reciprocal love that Jesus taught through this surprising action is, therefore, one of his beatitudes. How then will we live the word during this month? Jesus does not ask us to imitate him by blindly copying what he did, even though it remains as a shining and unbeatable example. Doing what Jesus did means understanding that our Christian life has meaning if we live "for" others, if we consider our existence as a service to our brothers and sisters and base our whole lives on this. Then we will have achieved what Jesus has most at heart. We will have lived the Gospel and will be truly blessed"
