The Sacrament of Reconciliation God the Father sent his Son Jesus to die on the cross for the salvation of the world. By the power of the Holy Spirit at the sacrament of Reconciliation Jesus is present between the penitent and the priest and the Lord personally comes to the penitent healing and forgiving them. Do not ignore Jesus who longs for us to reconcile human beings to each other and to God. Even if you think you are not too sinful and have no need, you can make your confession on behalf of all the sins of the world around us; no one can doubt we live in a sinful world. Notice the times for extra confessions on the front page.

Animate needs individuals who have a few hours free in May/June to help moderate the work the young people have done. Moderators are not specialists: they are ordinary people who can spend time looking at pieces of work and writing a short affirmation of the work the young person has done in your own home at your convenience. A Mariapolis Day takes place at Liverpool Hope University Chapel from 10am – 5pm on Saturday 11 May. The title is: "May they All be One" How can we live these words of Jesus? In a complex and unpredictable world the appeal to unity can seem an impossible ideal! This day will throw some light on the question. There are cards to remind you in the Narthex. Bring a packed lunch: there is a programme for children under 16.

OUR WAY OF LIFE. Even when we are faced with complex and tragic situations that are beyond our control, there is something we can and must do to contribute to the "common good" of all. We can still engage with an attitude of generosity and responsibility, without expecting any kind of reward.

A REFLECTION. When Jesus was faced with the sinful situation of today's Gospel, he thought about it and then acted with the greatest tact and sensitivity to everyone who was involved. We too can think before we act and try to turn our negative feelings when there is some suffering or awkwardness of any kind into positives. This is a practical way to be loving of others and of God.

WORD OF LIFE "So if I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet" (Jn. 13:14).

When recalling the last few hours spent with Jesus before his death, John the Evangelist focuses on the washing of the feet. In the past, in the Middle East, this was a sign of welcome towards guests who had arrived after travelling on dusty roads. It was an action usually performed by servants.

It was for this very reason that the disciples at first did not want to let their teacher do this. However, he then explained: So if I, your Lord and teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet
