The Archdiocesan Synod Matters

The First step: read for yourself the gospel of today: John 21 1-19

Pope Francis says in The Joy of the Gospel:

Everyone needs to be touched by the comfort and action of God's saving love, which is mysteriously at work in each person above and beyond their faults and failings. [44]

Reflection

Jesus met these fishermen coming home from work and cooked their breakfast, and they recognised him — an ordinary everyday situation changed by an encounter with the Risen Lord. At the heart of our Synod is the truth that God speaks to us in the ordinary events and situations of our lives, if only we take the time to stop and listen. This first Synod question invites us to recognise God's presence in the day to day events of our lives.

Synod Question 1

Where in your everyday life do you experience love, truth, goodness, hope and joy?

Prayer

Light a candle and take a moment's silence before praying:

Risen Jesus, just as you met the first disciples beside the Sea of Galilee, meet us on the shore of our lives.

Help us to see you in the encounters we have each day and enable us to draw strength from your presence.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Synod 2020: Have your say

Please ensure that your voice is heard in response to the Four Synod Questions.

Attend a local Listening Gathering in St Mary's Parish Centre on 4 or 6 June 7:00 for 7:30pm or Respond online at www.synod2020.co.uk or take a printed form and return it to the Priory House by 23 June.

WELLS FOR AFRICA - In order to mark the Order's centenary year, KSC Council 323 will be raising funds for Wells for Africa. Some may remember our successful campaign from many years ago. We will be raising funds in association with Water Aid UK. Please give generously. Look out for the little wishing well in the Narthex.

A Big Thank you to all who helped make the Ordination last Sunday, first mass of the newly ordained, and the Feast of Divine Mercy such success moments and liturgies.

Tickets are still available for the KSC Centenary Dinner Dance on May 17th at the Hallmark Hotel Leyland. £27.50 per person, 3 course meal and live entertainment "The Others". Contact Mike Fitzpatrick 424189 or any of the Knights.

Bidding Prayer rota now available for those who undertake this important task. Many thanks.

OUR WAY OF LIFE. Looking after Jesus' flock is not just Peter's concern—it is also mine and yours. Are we ready? The answer is yes, provided we can say to Jesus "Yes, I love you."

A REFLECTION. Jesus met these fishermen coming home from work and cooked their breakfast, and they recognised him — an ordinary everyday situation changed by an encounter with the Risen Lord. At the heart of our Spiritual Life is the truth that God speaks to us in the ordinary events and situations of our lives, if only we take the time to stop and listen.

WORD OF LIFE "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20:21).

After giving an account of Jesus' terrible death on the cross and describing the disciples' fear and bewilderment, St John then proclaims something completely new. Jesus has risen from the dead and come back to his people! In fact, on Easter morning, the Risen Lord was seen and recognized by Mary Magdalene. That same evening, he showed himself to some other disciples, who had shut themselves indoors because they felt so confused and defeated. Jesus went looking for them, wanting to see them again. The fact that they had betrayed him or run away from danger did not matter. He showed them the signs of his passion: his hands and side that had been pierced and wounded during his torment on the cross. His first words were a greeting of peace, a true gift that sank into their souls and transformed their lives.
