Time Out at Whalley Abbey, Lancashire: 11th - 13th September 2019. Building relationships of love and unity 'May they all be One'(John 17:21) All are invited to a mid-week residential gathering in the Focolare spirit of unity at Whalley Abbey near Clitheroe. We will have a loosely structured but flexible two-day programme, exploring how to live out a spirituality of love and unity and spending time together with Jesus among us (Mt 18:20). There will be time to talk, listen, watch, chat, relax, pray and possibly visit nearby Stonyhurst grounds and museum. Children are welcome with their parents/carers, but as it is term-time we do not expect many can attend and therefore no crèche/special sessions are provided. For further information please take a full explanation sheet from the Narthex. It would also be possible to be day visitors as on the sheet but people need to book and to pay by 30 August. The actual content of the programme will come later.

WORD OF LIFE For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Lk 12:34)

The "heart" represents the hidden, deepest and most intimate part of ourselves and the very source of our lives. The "treasure" represents whatever has most value and gives us security both today and in the future. Our "heart" also represents our values, the source of the choices we make; it is the secret place where the meaning of life itself is at stake. What is most important for us? What is our "treasure" for which we are ready to leave all else behind?

Western consumer society encourages us to accumulate material goods, to concentrate on our own needs and not bother about those of others. This is driven by the pursuit of personal well-being and efficiency. Yet St Luke, who wrote his Gospel in a very different cultural context, presents these words of Jesus as a decisive and universal teaching for men and women of all times and all places.

"For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also"
