OUR WAY OF LIFE. In the New Testament the teaching about who is my neighbour, who is my brother and sister completely changed. For the chosen people of God before Jesus, only those who were Jews and foreigners who lived among them and agreed that the Jewish people were the chosen people were considered brothers, sisters and neighbours.

A REFLECTION. Jesus made sure that the people of the New Israel, the new people of God would be of any people, or race or colour. In fact if the teaching of Jesus individually is to love your neighbour as yourself, collectively we should love another country as much as we love our own. It is the logic of the gospel and makes sense especially in our world which is like one big village where we have news of each other instantly. This spirit will both satisfy and bring peace and harmony to everyone.

WORD OF LIFE Guard, the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

Paul and Timothy received the Holy Spirit as light and guarantee for their irreplaceable task as pastors and evangelizers. Through their witness and that of their successors, the proclamation of the Gospel has come down to us. In the same way, every Christian has a "mission" in his or her own social and religious community: to build a united family, to educate young people, to engage in politics and work, to care for vulnerable people, to enlighten culture and art with the wisdom of the Gospel lived, to consecrate his or her life to God for the service of others. Indeed, according to the words of Pope Francis to young people, "...every man and woman is a mission." We always have the opportunity to consciously renew our commitment to witnessing to our faith, with our hearts filled with evangelical love that generates welcome, encounter and dialogue.

A Prayer of Saint John Henry Newman our new English Saint. Saint John Henry Pray for us.

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.
