Our Way of Life Our Lord has every claim to the title and majesty of Kingship, and yet he comes to us in humility and gentleness. Our way of life leads us by God's grace to have the spirit of Christ within us.

A Reflection There is a pearl of light when I cannot even raise a smile, when I reach my wit's end and then find I have to go another mile. There is a pearl of light when nothing works out right no matter how hard I try, and when I shake my fist in the night and should a god-forsaken "why". The pearl of light is in the cry of Jesus on the cross when he cried out "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me". This is the key to understanding why God loved his Son and each one of us in every circumstance of our lives. The risen Jesus, God made man, can be among us if we undertake the training to learn how to love one another as he loved us. The training is our living experience interpreted by love from others who have achieved in their own frailty the spirit of Christ within them, living members of the Church. That power of His presence will help us joyfully and peacefully to face the storm as it rises; when the clouds are dark and when I am doing time in my homemade jail.

WORD OF LIFE 'For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.' (Mt. 12:50) Matthew's Gospel recounts an episode in Jesus' life that can seem unimportant. His mother and her family went to Capernaum where Jesus was staying with the disciples proclaiming the Father's love to all. They had probably walked a long way to find him and they wanted to talk to him. They did not go straight to the place where he was, but they sent a message: "Your mother and your brothers are outside and are trying to speak to you."

The Opening up of St Mary's Leyland for Worship together Guidelines for Mass.

Rejoice and thank God that some of our Catholic Churches are opening this week. St Mary's Leyland will have public mass on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays at 10 am. These days and times are a beginning. We will adapt to what suits priests and people better. Make your views known to help us discern what to do; it is impossible immediately to know what is best in these times.

Contacting us for anything: ring us or email us administratorstmarysleyland@btconnect.com

Do not expect us to go back to things as they were before covid-19 and it will look and feel different. We have put in place all the measures needed to ensure the risks of virus transmission are minimised. This is our priority. Social distancing guidelines are still in force. This why in church every 2nd row will be closed off.

The volunteers will tell you what to do and how to receive Holy Communion and take your details if necessary.

The obligation to go to mass on Sundays has not been restored. Anyone who is unwell should not come to Church and the vulnerable must carefully consider the wisdom of doing so. The weekday mass counts for a Sunday in our present circumstances. There will be baskets for your envelopes and loose collections available.

All coming to mass wear a face mask. Bring your own. At communion time take them off or lower them

There will be a limit to those who may come to mass even in our very big Church. We expect the Sunday mass to be the largest and we think and pray that all who wish will fit in.

You are encouraged if you are free, to come to Church for mass on any weekday rather than Sundays

Testing and Tracing Contact us to tell us which day/s you wish to come. If you have not done so when you arrive in Church try to remember to bring your name and contact 'phone number on a piece of paper. We need to know who was in Church on every day we have mass during the Covid pandemic situation,

New Volunteers Contact us if you are able and would like to volunteer for Church duties as a marshal.

Streaming on face book will continue at every mass, public or without a congregation God willing.

Holy Communion will be distributed after the final dismissal of the mass. The words "The Body of Christ. Amen" will be said once at the beginning of distributing Holy Communion. The ushers will direct you to go to Holy Communion and the Volunteers will moderate the queue. Holy Communion will only be given on the hand. On the tongue is not allowed. The priest or person giving Holy Communion will wear a see-through visor. After receiving Holy Communion, you will be directed to leave Church. Nobody goes back to the bench they were in and it will be important not to bring heavy shopping or large personal items to Church to avoid going back to the bench you came from.

Centres for Disease Control and Provention find that "Currently, there is no evidence to support transmission of COVID-19 associated with food." Therefore, Holy Communion will be distributed without tongs but if the minister touches the hand of the person receiving Holy Communion, he/she must sanitise their hands immediately. The recipient sanitises leaving church. No gloves to be worn either by ministers or the recipients.

Votive candles can be lit in Church only on your way out of Church and from a lit candle.

Other guidelines are for Funerals, Baptisms and Weddings. Also, Reconciliation or confession can begin again with important guidelines in place such as distancing. Please contact Sister Veronica for baptisms. Those already booked before lockdown will be baptised first. Contact the Church for everything else.

Do not hesitate to ring us if you need help in anyway. We will do our best to find some solutions.
