In order to realise the potential of the centre we need a lot of resources This all takes money. We are looking for anybody skilled in plumbing, decorating, kitchen construction, flooring etc that could either give us advice, labour or who can get things more or less at cost - parish members or their relatives. If you have any skills or resources we can tap into we would be most grateful. Please contact: St Mary's Church 01772 455955

The Liverpool Pilgrimage to Lourdes at home will take place from Sunday 25 July to Friday 30 July. You can look it up on the website at Liverpool Catholic pressing ctrl and click on the underlined words Liverpool Catholic in the line above. On Wednesday 28th July, the Mass will be at 12 noon in our Church. Bishop Tom Williams presides at mass in honour of St Bernadette. That will be the only mass that day in Church.

Daring to Care Canon Thomas Neylon has been appointed to be an auxiliary Bishop of Liverpool. He has dared to accept the decision of Pope Francis. Canon Thomas Neylon writes: For now, I find peace in accepting the appointment from a trust that the Lord has placed in me. I have to deepen my relationship with Christ, the Good Shepherd, who laid down his life for his sheep.

I was born into a Catholic family in Warrington. Our home, the parish I grew up in, St Oswald's Primary School, Padgate and English Martyrs High School in Orford, have been a powerful influence regarding the importance of faith in my life. Father Bill Cook, a curate in the parish asked me this question: 'Have you ever thought about becoming a priest?' That set me on a pathway of exploration that led to my ordination.

One of the strong themes underpinning the recommendations of the Synod is that of service. It is in this spirit that I hope to live my life as an Auxiliary Bishop.

Archbishop Malcolm writes: He will now be able to use those God-given pastoral talents and experience at a higher level in assisting me in taking the Church forward in the coming years, especially for our Synod plans.

Bishop-elect Thomas Neylon was ordained by Pope St John Paul II in 1982, he has served in Wigan, Skelmersdale, for 24 years in St Helens and Widnes. He knows our Archdiocese and our people well.

Word of Life Take heart daughter; your faith has made you well. We can be helped to live this Word by what Focolare founder, Chiara Lubich, wrote when meditating on this very Gospel passage: 'Through their faith, men and women clearly demonstrate that they do not rely on themselves but trust in the One who is stronger than them. ... Jesus calls the woman he has healed 'daughter' to show that he really wants to give her not only the gift of physical healing but also the gift of divine life that can renew her entirely. Jesus, in fact, works miracles so that we can accept the salvation that he brings. He embodies the Father's gift of forgiveness and when this is communicated to men and women, it transforms them.

How can we live this Word? By showing God our trust in him when we face serious challenges. Such an attitude certainly does not relieve us of our responsibilities, nor does it dispense us from doing all we can. But our faith can be put to the test. We see it clearly in this suffering woman who manages to overcome the obstacle of the crowd that stands between her and the Master. We must have faith, then, but faith that does not doubt in the face of difficulties. And, again, we must show Jesus that we have understood the immense gift that he has brought us, the gift of divine life and be grateful to him and correspond to it.'
