DARE TO CARE

The many wars that are going on in the world merit us to dare to be peacemakers as peace must begin with each one of us embracing the challenges that lead me to be angry and to lose peace. It could be that driver who annoys me when I am in a hurry; that person who rubs me up the wrong way; that person who I wish were dead for the things he or she have done...and any situation or event that takes away peace which implies we lose our ability to love "the enemy."

The Holy Spirit of Peace dares each one of us to let Him within; then we can put on the mind and heart of Christ. Jesus can help us to be Christ-like and to our (or at least my) astonishment to see I have been patient when I might have judged and criticised my neighbour who may be my brother or sister, or my spouse or anybody. We gain the freedom to escape the control of the Old Person of Sin, where the evil one takes over in us. Joyfully we recognise with great astonishment that Jesus himself is collaborating within us, true freedom.

The greatest threat to the world however is to do with the future of our common home. All people need to dare to be converted to change mentality and take steps to promote what we pray for at every mass:

- a. To share a world of beauty and plenty
- b. To live simply
- c. To be responsible for the earth
- d. To act in solidarity and so:
 - a. bring about a world that mirrors your wisdom
 - b. help the pillars of injustice to crumble
 - c. and help those now crushed to be set free.

Our Parish ecological group met on Saturday 18 June focussing on the breakdown of the global food system. We hope to present ideas on this topic.

Practical thinks to do to live more simply: Outdoor space for prayer and contemplation / "Reduce waste" rules for home and parish events and parties / Composting kitchen and churchyard waste / Washable – not disposable - napkins, cloths, mugs and cutlery / Washable nappies / Emails and texts - not paper / Printing double-sided / Used one sided scrap paper for printing one sided temporary notes for messages / Toy or music library / Second-hand school uniform exchange

Ukraine appeal we do not need clothes or wheelchairs at present. Medical supplies are more urgent. Dressings, bandages, micropore tape, paracetamol, ibuprofen, antiseptic creams. Thank you for all your support; we and those Ukrainians in need much appreciate it.

Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion Celine Godinho organises the Ministers for distribution of Holy Communion at the two Sunday Masses, and Sister Veronica looks after the Ministers for Holy Communion to the sick and housebound. If anyone is interested in being a Minister in either or both of these fields it would be a help. Contact Celine in the evening on 01772 422833 or Fr Jonathan or Sister Veronica on the phones shown on the top of this bulletin.

The Word of Life You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you. (Ps 16[15]:2)

The words of this prayer enfold us, we feel that God's active and loving presence encompasses everything about us and about creation: we perceive that he gathers up our past, our present, and our future. In him, we find the strength to confidently face the sufferings we meet and the serenity to lift our gaze and see hope beyond the shadows of life.

Our St Mary's Website publishes The Word of Life on its own tag under the Bulletin tag. The video of the Word of Life is here: <https://youtu.be/Pd3pXpeWknI> Copy and Paste or ctrl & click. It is best to skip the adverts that are very engaging but waste time.
