DARE TO CARE

Pope Francis sent a message to Queen Elizabeth on Thursday 2 June expressing his prayers and good wishes on the occasion of her Platinum Jubilee. "On this joyful occasion of your Majesty's birthday, and as you celebrate this Platinum Jubilee year, I send cordial greetings and good wishes, together with the renewed assurance of my prayers that Almighty God will bestow upon you, the members of the Royal Family and all the people of the nation blessings of unity, prosperity and peace."

In a previously unpublished message sent to Queen Elizabeth on 29 March, the Pope said he joins with those expressing appreciation for her persevering and steadfast service to the good of the nation, "the advancement of its people, and the preservation of its illustrious spiritual, cultural and political heritage."

In recognition of the monarch's commitment to the care of God's creation, Pope Francis is donating a Cedar of Lebanon to the Queen's Green Canopy initiative. He expressed the hope that this tree, "which in the Bible symbolises the flourishing of fortitude, justice and prosperity, would be a pledge of abundant divine blessings upon her realm". Each British citizen is invited by the Queen to plant a tree in this year sometime.

Cardinal Vincent Nichols prayer for Queen Elizabeth. "Today we thank God for all the years of astonishing service that have been given by Her Majesty from that day of her solemn anointing, through times of peace and great sadness, suffering and joy. "The calmness that she carries always with her arises from a soul at peace, rooted in a trust in God and inspired by her Christian faith, of which she speaks so eloquently and shows so faithfully. "God bless Her Majesty. May we pray for her always."

Extracts from President Macron's tributes to the Queen for her Platinum Jubilee

"Madame, during the past 70 years, the President of the French Republic has relied on very few constants at the international level. Times have changed, Europe has evolved, our continent is again experiencing war. Through these transformations, your devotion to our alliance and to our friendship has remained and has helped build the trust that brought freedom and prosperity to our continent..."

"You have shared our joys and seen the deep affections and admiration that the French people have for you...You are the golden thread that binds our two countries, the proof of the unwavering friendship between our two nations.....You have been a constant presence and a source of wisdom for the leaders of our two countries. This year, the 70th of your reign, we celebrate your achievements. We are grateful for your courage and we share the respect and love that the British people and Commonwealth have always shown you."

Prayer for the Queen

Following the Prayer after Communion

Priest. O Lord, save Elizabeth, our Queen. All. And hear us on the day we call upon you.

Priest. O Lord, hear my prayer. All. And let my cry come before you.

Priest. The Lord be with you. All.. And with your spirit.

Almighty God, we pray, that your servant Elizabeth, our Queen, who, by your providence has received the governance of this realm, may continue to grow in every virtue, that, imbued with your heavenly grace, she may be preserved from all that is harmful and evil and, being blessed with your favour may, with the royal family, come at last into your presence, through Christ who is the way, the truth and the life and who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

The Word of Life You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you. (Ps 16[15]:2)

This month's Word of Life is taken from the book of Psalms which has some of the finest prayers attributed to King David and others: they are fruit of God's inspiration and teach us how to turn to him trustingly. We can all find ourselves expressed in the Psalms: they touch the soul intimately and express the deepest and most intense human feelings: doubt, grief, anger, anguish, despair, hope, praise, thanksgiving, and joy. That is why every man and woman during all ages, from all cultures, and at every moment of life can proclaim the psams.

Our St Mary's Website publishes The Word of Life on its own tag under the Bulletin tag. The video of the Word of Life is here: <https://youtu.be/Pd3pXpeWknI> Copy and Paste or ctrl & click. It is best to skip the adverts that are very engaging but waste time.
