Dare to Care. Bruce Kent has died: a remarkable English Catholic Christian who dared to care. Educated at Stonyhurst College, ordained a priest for Westminster diocese in 1958. He left the priesthood on 11 February 1987 because "I knew that I no longer fitted into the priesthood as others saw it". He was incredibly sad that day and he wept with his friends and family. He realised the futility of war and of nuclear weapons in particular.

Baroness Helena Kennedy QC said: "He was a huge influence on my life and his commitment to peace and human rights was inspirational. He wanted a more compassionate and inclusive Church and a more decent and just society. He lived out his faith in everything he did - for the marginalised and the poor - and he gave his all with such a profound sense of fun. He was one of the finest human beings I have ever met."

Malcolm McMahon op, our Archbishop, President of Pax Christi England & Wales said: "Peacemakers across the world will saddened to hear of the death of Bruce Kent who made a lasting contribution to the peace movement within the Christian churches and much farther afield. Bruce became well known and influential in his national role in the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament and with Pax Christi, the international Catholic Peace Movement. His clarity of thought and deep Christian faith brought light and direction to many people wrestling with the complex arguments around war and peace. Personally, I will miss him for being a wonderfully warm human being. May he now rest in the Peace of Christ to which he dedicated his life.

Paul Rogers, Emeritus Professor of Peace Studies at the University of Bradford, and President of the Movement for the Abolition of War gave the following tribute: "For more than fifty years Bruce was an utterly determined advocate for peace, and a relentless campaigner against the idiocy of nuclear weapons. He never let up and was forever optimistic and inspiring, even at the most difficult of times."

Reiner Braun, Executive Director of the International Peace Bureau said: "It is seldom we call someone a 'peace hero' because, as peace activists we are against such terms. But Bruce was one of these historical peace figures with his deep, lifelong, emotional and argumentative engagement for peace. We are doing everything to continue the work in his spirit."

His obituary from the Guardian newspaper is on the parish website in the Bulletins / St Marys Bulletins. We pray for him; he will pray for us as we struggle with the complex arguments around peace and war.

Ukraine appeal sadly we do not need clothes the medical supplies are more urgent. Dressings, bandages, micropore tape, paracetamol, ibuprofen, antiseptic creams. No wheelchairs needed either at present. Thanks for all your support; we and those Ukrainians in need much appreciate it.

The Word of Life You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you. (Ps 16[15]:2) Psalm 16 was a favourite of many spiritual authors. For example, St Teresa of Avila commented: "Nothing is lacking to those who possess God: God alone is enough for them!" Father Antonios Fikry Rofaeil, theologian of the Coptic Orthodox Church, noted: "This is the psalm of the resurrection, so the Church prays it in the early hours ... since Christ rose at dawn. This psalm gives us hope in our eternal inheritance; often it gets the name "golden," meaning that it is a golden word, a gem of Holy Scripture." Let us try to repeat it, thinking about each word.

Our St Mary's Website publishes The Word of Life on its own tag under the Bulletin tag. The video of the Word of Life is here: <https://youtu.be/Pd3pXpeWknI> Copy and Paste or ctrl & click. It is best to skip the adverts that are very engaging but waste time.
