QUOTE OF THE WEEK: God knows your imperfections and loves you - not in spite of them, but because of them.

The new High School Chapel! will be inaugurated with a Mass on Monday 2nd September at 8 am. The old chapel has served the school very well for many years but now a new chapel more in the heart of the school and at ground level is in place. We remember with gratitude and affection all those associated with the old school chapel and the many wonderful spiritual and enhancing moments that happened in it. May God bless our High school and may it develop in every way for God's glory and the good of all the children and for the good of the Church.

WORD OF LIFE

Let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action (1Jn. 3:18)

John the Evangelist wrote these words. He was putting his communities on guard against certain people whose words spoke highly of faith in Jesus, but who did not follow faith through with practice. Indeed, they considered practice to be useless and superfluous, as if Jesus had already done everything. Their faith was empty and sterile because it took away from the work of Jesus the indispensable contribution he asks from each of us.

Be sure they have all our prayers and support. May God bless both our Primary Schools in this new stage of their story within our Parish.

Significant Developments at Ampleforth College (the independent school which is linked with our Abbey). Fr. Gabriel Everitt OSB the head teacher has completed ten years as head master and he has announced his retirement. Fr. Abbot writes "The imperative to appoint the best possible head for the College compels the Trustees and Governors to seek a professional lay Head. This will be the first time the head master of our monastic school is a lay person. This development in no way diminishes the monastic community's commitment to the school; rather the reverse." A copy of Fr. Abbot's whole letter is in the narthex on the board
