QUOTE OF THE WEEK: Sometimes the hardest and the right thing are the same

Life on the front line. About six weeks ago we showed in Church a short video clip intended to help us discover in busy lives an insight how life as it is today can be the place to spread the gospel. It was hard to follow in Church and if you wish to watch it at home go to: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TVKbvE-HQeI> A small PPC group have been carefully studying your responses. Shortly there will be more news about this project that we are calling "A Way of Life"

Journey in Faith is our way to allow people to explore our Catholic Faith so that the Holy Spirit may speak in their hearts to make a further step, or not. There will probably be at least four new adults this year, some already baptised, some not baptised. If interested contact Fr. Jonathan. The course starts on Sunday 5 October and meets from 5-6pm on Sundays thereafter with gaps on holidays etc.

WORD OF LIFE

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God (Rom 15:7)

These words are some of Paul's final guidance in his letter to the Christians in Rome. This community, like many others spread throughout the Graeco-Roman world, was composed of believers who came partly from pagan and partly from Jewish origins. Therefore their mind sets, their cultural backgrounds and their spiritual sensitivities were very different. Such diversity gave an opening to judgements, prejudices, discrimination and intolerance towards others that were certainly not in accord with the mutual welcome that God wanted them to have.

Next weekend is Racial Justice Sunday. All Christians are called earnestly to pray for racial equality. The Catholic Church in England and Wales is helping to overcome racial justice in our nation through the pioneering work of the bishops' Conference Office for Migration. A unique partnership forged between the Church and the statutory authorities is combating human trafficking and modern-day forms of slavery. It supports some of the most vulnerable and marginalised people. To support this work and that of the Catholic Association for Racial Justice, a second collection will be taken next weekend. All donations great or small make a difference. If you would like more information www.cbcew.org.uk/human-trafficking or to donate, www.catholicchurch.org.uk/donations.
