QUOTE OF THE WEEK: Pope Francis says: Let us not allow ourselves to be robbed of Missionary enthusiasm

Our Bishops ask that every parish prays for Home Mission (evangelisation) today. The 2nd collection supports the development of new ways of reaching out to the estimated 4 million non-churchgoing (lapsed) Catholics. Please be as generous as you can. The collection funds new projects: - websites, outreach projects, research initiatives, campaign materials, and much more. Pick up the free Home Mission Sunday postcard as you leave church today. Your support through prayer, and generous giving, will make a difference to people's lives.

Our Lady in Art Exhibition - thank you to all the exhibitors who provided an interesting and exciting variety of work, modern and old, expressing the love and devotion to Our Lady over many centuries.

Fr. Jonathan will be away on holiday till 5 October with Fr. Piotr Andrukiewicz CSSr the smiling Polish Redemptorist priest who was with us for 5 months in 2013. Fr. Piotr sends his love and prayers to all.

WORD OF LIFE

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God (Rom 15:7)

Let's try to live this Word of Life first of all inside our families, associations, communities, groups at work, by ridding ourselves of our judgements, discrimination, prejudice, resentment, intolerance towards one neighbour or another. These things come so easily and so often, chilling and spoiling human relations. Like a pall of ill will, they block mutual love.

Liturgical Calendars must be booked by this Sunday if you want one at the Piety Shop. They give the feasts for each day next year, and much more together with diary spaces in a desk diary. Information is on the door of the Piety shop. St. Paul's missals will also be available for you for 2015. Please book these too now or soon.

HCPT Cake Stall - the 'bakers' thank all customers last Sunday who enabled them to make £260 towards helping a special child visit Lourdes. Sincere thanks also to the anonymous person for the very generous donation of £200. God bless you all.

Thank-you to everyone who submitted suggestions for our parish initiative, "A way of life". All comments have been collated and recorded: a few copies are available in the narthex and one is on display on the notice board. Details of how we will use suggestions in the next stage of "A way of life" will follow in the next few weeks.

Anthony & Kath Waidson thank everyone for cards, prayer & thoughts etc. Anthony is now home and doing well. God bless you all.

Those with 'Red' Mission Boxes will receive a visit from your collector in the next few weeks. Missio magazines explains how the money is used to support and sustain the growth of the universal Church. Copies are available at the back of church. Contact Teresa and Martin Smith on 452745 if you would like a 'box'. We can also be a missionary through prayer as Pope Francis suggests. The Pope's mission intention for September is 'That Christians, inspired by the Word of God, may commit themselves to serving the poor and suffering'.

Start of the Sacramental Programme for First Confessions, Confirmation and First Communions is on Monday 29 December in Church at 6.30pm for parents and children (school year 4) in Church. If any family wishes their child to join in be in touch immediately with Lesley Raven. We look forward to seeing a big crowd that evening.
