QUOTE OF THE WEEK: The way you start your day can affect your whole day. Begin it with a smile, calmness of mind, coolness of emotions and a heart filled with gratitude

Fr. Jonathan from his holidays I thank all who make it possible for me to have a good holiday in Poland. I would like to acknowledge the joy it gives me to understand something of the contribution of the Polish people to the Catholic Church, and so to our culture in Europe. We also have a few Poles among our parishioners and I greet them from their homeland. It has been so joyful and helpful to live among Polish people without understanding their Slav language. Fr Piotr and I speak English or Italian, and many speak some English. St John Paul 2 among many other Saints is alive for his people in a remarkable way. Also I thank God the Polish Government kept Auschwitz open for the world to learn the horrors capable by human beings in the holocaust and for St Faustina and her gift of mercy to the world.

WORD OF LIFE

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God (Rom 15:7)

In society in general, Let's resolve to witness to the welcoming love of Jesus to any neighbour the Lord puts next to us, especially those social selfishness most easily tends to exclude or marginalize. Welcoming the other, the one different from us, lies at the basis of Christian love. It is the starting point, the first step to building the civilization of love, the culture of communion, that Jesus is calling us to above all today.

Simon Brown RIP Fr. Jonathan writes from holidays. I have heard of Simon's leaving us into the arms of God the Father, and send everyone especially his family (and I know many will not have known him) very special sympathy and prayers. I have said mass for him and John Greer already. Parishioners ought to know he was responsible for many things behind the scenes in our parish, including the Newman Fund by which many in need have been helped, as well as a major contribution to common sense & wise advice on the Parish Pastoral Council. He loved our parish & supported us, as so many do, in hidden ways.

Start of the Sacramental Programme for First Confessions, Confirmation and First Communions is this Monday 29th September

(not December as stated last week) in Church at 6.30pm for parents and children (school year 4) in Church. If any family wishes their child to join in be in touch immediately with Lesley Raven. We look forward to seeing a big crowd that evening.

Moving up to High School information evening for St. Mary's P School Haig Avenue Wed 1st October 2014. Miss McNicholas, Governors and
