WORD OF LIFE

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law (Rom. 13:8)

In the first place, love is presented as a debt, that is, as something we cannot be indifferent to, something we cannot put off. It is presented as something pressing on us, spurring us on, leaving us no peace until it is satisfied. It's like saying that mutual love is not an 'extra', the result of our largesse, whose strictures we can set aside without incurring any legal penalty.
