Annual Mass for all who died November '09-November '10 takes place on Sunday 7th November at the 11am mass. See the list and please tell us of loved ones not included. Usual format with candles brought in memory of those who have died.

Parish AGM thanksgiving and celebration takes place on Friday 12th November at 7pm to end in Church by 8pm at the latest. There will be food and drink in the Parish Centre and socialising, but nothing more from 8pm onwards. The PPC have come up with a different format to past years, in the spirit of promoting what Parishioners identified as the main hope and expectation from their priests: - "the building up and strengthening of our Parish Community." There will not be a mass but a liturgy of the Word. We will incorporate thanksgiving and celebration in Church for our Parish Groups, with a symbol of each group brought to the front. A few groups will give a brief explanation of how they serve the community and will pray on behalf of that group and from their perspective. All members of the group will participate if possible in a simple way. We will briefly present the Parish accounts in Church, and parishioners will receive a copy of these accounts beforehand enabling questions, Also we will welcome any comments or questions about any aspect of Parish life. These will be in writing so we can choose (if too many) the most important ones. All will be answered but not necessarily that night. We hope many come and join in the thanksgiving and celebration service, which will be graced by the presence of Archbishop Kelly who will speak at the service.

November service with photos of those who have died Wednesday 17th November 7-7.45pm. We will have a short service, not a mass projecting photos of those who had died, with candles, scripture singing and praying. It is not a mass. We will include as many from 2009 as well as 2010 but anyone can make additions: please hand in the photos by Sunday 7th November or to administratorstmarysleyland@btconnect.com

WORD OF LIFE

You shall love your neighbour as yourself (Mt 22:39)

Who can give us such a big heart? Who can stir up in us such kindness that we feel even those who are most unlike us, those most distant from us, as neighbours, as close, that we overcome our self-love and see our self in others? It is a gift from God. It is, in fact, God's own love that 'has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit that has been given to us' (Rom 5:5). Therefore, it is not ordinary love, not simple friendship, not just philanthropy, but that love which was poured out into our hearts at our baptism, the love which is the life of God himself, of the blessed Trinity, in which we can share.
