QUOTE OF THE WEEK: How much good it does us to love another, in spite of everything. Yes, in spite of everything: "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good" (Rom 12:21)

DISCOVERING YOUR VOCATION IN LIFE "Dear young friends, only Jesus knows what definite service he has in mind for you, be open to his voice resounding in the depths of your heart. Even now, his heart is speaking to your heart." Benedict XVI, Hyde Park Vigil, 2010.

Fr. Jonathan and Sister Veronica would like to start a local discernment group for young men & women aged 15-21, who are discerning a vocation to the Priesthood or religious life. Contact either of them and we will arrange a "Pizza" gathering.

WORD OF LIFE

I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. (Jn 6:35)

Jesus already sees himself as bread. In the end, therefore, this is the goal of his life on earth. He is to be bread so as to be eaten. And to be bread so as to communicate his life to us and to transform us into himself. So far the spiritual meaning of these words, with their references to the Old Testament, is clear. but later on Jesus' words become mysterious and difficult when he says of himself: 'The bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh' (Jn 6:51) and 'Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you' (Jn 6:53)
