Stations of the Cross 11.30 am every Friday in Lent. The attendance has dropped and we think this maybe due to the church being cold. We will pray the stations from now on in Blessed Sacrament Chapel. If you are coming to Mass perhaps you could come early to join us.

WAY OF LIFE FOR LENT: Here are a few positive suggestions to help us in Lent: In quiet moments, thank God for all his benefits. In silence and stillness God speaks to us - so let us make an extra effort during Lent to be quiet and listen, especially in Church. Let us try to be moderate in our language.

Word of Life

If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. [MK 8:34]

Now that Jesus had clearly affirmed his own identity, he could demonstrate with equal clarity the identity of someone who was his disciple. If the Master is one who loves his people to the point of dying for them, taking their cross upon himself, so too his disciple, to be such, must set aside his or her own way of thinking and share in the entire way of the Master, starting with the cross. (see Mk 8:31-33).
