WAY OF LIFE

OUR WAY OF LIFE

Several times the Lord in today's gospel instructs us not to be afraid. Most of us do find ourselves with fears and today is a good day to continue the process of so fully knowing God and his love that we are set free of fear.

REFLECTION We certainly need to be among those to whom Jesus reveals the Kingdom: those who are LIKE children in their trusting and are NOT LIKE the clever and the wise who think they do not need God and his love (See Matthew 11: 25ff).

WORD OF LIFE With the Holy Spirit's help this month, every time we interact with others, no matter what it is, let us too remember and practice the words of love: welcome, listen, empathize, dialogue, encourage, include, care, forgive, appreciate someone ... In this way, we accept Jesus' invitation to continue his mission, and we will be channels of the life he gave us.

This was the experience of a group of Buddhist monks visiting the international town of Loppiano, Italy, where its eight hundred inhabitants try to live the Gospel faithfully. They were deeply touched by experiencing Gospel love for the first time.

In 1998, Chiara remembered how one of them said: 'I put my dusty shoes outside the door; in the morning I found them clean. I put my dirty clothes outside the door; in the morning, I found them washed and ironed. Others knew that I was cold, because I was from Southeast Asia; they raised the temperature and brought me blankets ... One day, I asked, "Why are you doing this?" "Because we love you, because we love you very much," was the answer.' This experience paved the way for genuine dialogue between Buddhists and Christians.

The Word of Life is available in full in front of the piety shop (New City), & on the website.
