CALLED BEYOND WEEK You all have the programmes for the week and the prayer cards. Please use the prayer each day. Today you receive a VOCATION MAP; a very simple outline of what a vocation is. It is good to use for meditation.

Please consider coming to one or more of the events. No one is under obligation to say anything. Conversation is a better way to learn than being talked to and some prefer to listen. Also consider giving invitations to others that you know, without "forcing" anyone. Our whole approach is to let people freely discover the joy of learning to love, the joy of being a disciple. Everyone will be made welcome and we hope the family spirit will grow.

If anyone is struggling to find the funds to pay for an event see Fr Jonathan or one of the monks, or the team, or Lesley

Next Sunday's Mass at 10:00 is very special: Debbie Jones' choir will sing a new song composed by her: we will interview an ordinary parishioner for the sermon: Parishioners participate in the offertory, There is a small post communion dialogue on what the Church is doing for us and a display of all the parish groups to visit after mass. Please "Go Beyond" the norm and come to this mass, inviting others.

Sacramental programme for First Holy Communion begins next Monday 2nd of October at 6.30 p m in church. This is for children in Year 4 and above. If there are any baptised children who attend non catholic schools who wish to join us please arrive by 6.10 pm on Monday so we can register you'.

WAY OF LIFE

God each day, through the events of life, calls us and we can say "yes" or "no" and then do what God asks or not do it. He teaches us day by day to grow in Wisdom, into Him; his will brings joy & peace

REFLECTION

We can pray to God, and ask help of others for me to discern what we should do in life. As we do not see God, the other is very important. God may well suggest that we talk to a trustworthy person

WORD OF LIFE

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus (Phil 2:5).

While St Paul was in prison because of his preaching, he wrote to the Christian community in the city of Philippi. He had been the very first to preach the Gospel there, and many people had come to believe and had committed themselves generously to this new life. Even after Paul had left them, they continued to bear witness to Christian love. Knowing this about them made him very happy, which is why his letter is full of affection for the Philippians.

He encouraged them, therefore, to go ahead and to grow both as individuals and as a community.

Part of our protest campaign is to create awareness. We hope to send 10,000 red letters to the Prime Minister during October; We need help. During October, template letters and red envelopes will be made available after masses and at other times, to those who wish to support us in this exercise. Please help us reach our goal!
