Called Beyond At the AGM on Wednesday 8 November and last Thursday evening parishioners and the Called Beyond team discussed where we go from here. Plans are beginning to unfold; we have a renewed core team and supporters, and we will firm up ideas after we have met with the other Pilots and the National Office of Vocations reps on 25 November in Liverpool. You can see a fully researched summation of all that was done on the website. Scroll down the main page. Also we hope there will be some photos of some of the events as well.

We certainly gained something important from that week: and we thank all those who gave so much time and effort to make it happen and also those who joined in and benefitted

WAY OF LIFE

The Church is the Bride of Christ and we baptised and believing Christians are also individually the spouses of Christ. Love is at the heart of our calling: an amazing realisation of God's love for me, and then my response to God, the one for whom my soul is thirsting.

REFLECTION: If God gives us the grace to long for him like a dry, weary land without water we are truly blessed. We will never be like the five bridesmaids without oil. We will have God's Love in our hearts, and anxiety will quickly depart from us.

Parish directories giving contact details for our parish groups are available from the shelf by the Piety shop window they are coloured pink so easy to spot. Think of joining any of them if you wish.

WORD OF LIFE 'The greatest among you will be your servant' Matt 23:11

In this way, we discover that the brother or sister we should love in concrete practical ways; with our muscles too is every single person we meet on a daily basis. This means my dad, my mother in law, my youngest child and my most rebellious child. It means someone in prison, a beggar on the street, someone who is disabled, my manager and the cleaner at work. It means my political party and the person who has different political opinions. It means both people of our faith and culture and foreigners too. The characteristically Christian attitude towards each brother or sister is to serve him or her.

The Word of Life available in full in front of the piety shop (New City), & the website

Fr (Theodore Young's) Theo's Funeral took place on Tuesday 7 November at Ampleforth. It was a beautiful occasion. Fr Prior's excellent sermon is on the website. Scroll down the opening page of the website. There are also some photos of Theo from early on in his career and at the end of his life, and the final procession to his burial.

Tuesday 5 December at 7:15pm in our Church, there will be a mass to remember Fr Theo for all who wish to come, and to share a few of the amazing stories that have been placed on social media and others. It will be our chance in Leyland to thank God for this great man who had such a strong influence in our community for over 50 years.

Fr Theo lived his vocation to the full. He helped many people and there are many people who can witness to that fact. If anyone has any stories about him please think of writing them down and maybe we can put them all together for others to benefit from the kind of man he was. You can send them to jonathancotton43@gmail.com

Call for Deacons meeting Friday 24th November at St. John's Church Fountains Road Kirkdale Liverpool L4 1QL. Beginning with refreshments at 7pm, talk by Archbishop Malcolm ending at 9pm.
