WORD OF LIFE

It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God. (MT 19:24)

Plato has already affirmed: "It is impossible for someone who is extraordinarily good to be at the same time extraordinarily rich." What, then, should be the attitude of people who have possessions? They ought to have a free heart and be totally open to God, so that they feel that they are administrators of their goods, and know that – as Pope John Paul II said – they are under a social debt.
