WORD OF LIFE

Let your work shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. (Mt 5:16)

It is the Christian life lived out that is a light capable of drawing people to God in today's times too. Let me tell you a story. Antoinette was a girl from Sardinia, but in order to find work, she went to France, to Grenoble. She was employed in an office where most of her colleagues had no wish to work. Since she was a Christian and saw in every person Jesus to be served, she helped everybody, and was always calm and smiling. Often someone would get angry and take it out on her. They would mock her and say things like, "If you want to work, you can take this and do my typing too." She held her peace and slogged away. She knew that they were not bad people. Probably each of them had their own troubles. One day, when the others were not around, her supervisor came in and said, "Now you must tell me how come you never lose patience and why you're always smiling." Antoinette evaded the question by saying, "I just try to keep calm and look on the bright side of things." Her supervisor banged his fist on the desk and exclaimed, "No, this is definitely something to do with God, otherwise it would be impossible! And to think that I never believed in God!" a few days later, Antoinette was called in to see the senior staff. She was told she was being transferred to another office. "So you can transform it as you have the office you're in now," the director went on to explain.

Christmas Cracker

James was listening to a bible story. His dad read: "the man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned into salt". Concerned, James asked: "What happened to the flea?"
