INTERNATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS IN DUBLIN

10-17 June 2012

The Eucharist: Communion with Christ and with one another really partaking of the body of the Lord in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread, we are taken up into communion with Him and with one another. "Because the bread is one, we though many, are one body, all of us who partake of the one bread". In this way all of us are made members of His Body, "but severally members one of another" (Lumen Gentium, 7).

This week we can be in communion with all our brothers and sisters in Dublin from the world wide family of the Church. WHY NOT SPEND A PERIOD OF TIME THIS WEEK IN THE ADORATION CHAPEL OR PERHAPS AT MASS, SO THAT WE CAN DEEPEN OUR COMMUNION WITH CHRIST AND WITH ONE ANOTHER?

WORD OF LIFE

Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you.

(John 6:27)

The 'food that endures' is the person of Jesus himself and it is also his teaching, since Jesus' teaching is one and the same with his person. When we read Jesus' other words later on, we see that this 'bread that endures' is also identified with Jesus' Eucharistic body. So, we can say the 'bread that endures' is Jesus in person, who gives himself to us in his Word and in the Eucharist.
