WORD OF LIFE

But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval (1 Pt 2:20)

The apostle Peter is showing his communities the true spirit of the Gospel in its practical applications. In particular he refers to each person's circumstances and position in life. Here he is speaking to slaves who had converted to the faith and who, like all slaves in society at that period, were sometimes subject to totally unjust ill-treatment and lack of understanding. These words also extend to all those in any time and place who find they must endure a lack of understanding and injustice at the hands of their neighbours, whether superiors or equals.

CORPUS CHRISTI THE BODY OF CHRIST.

THIS IS TRULY THE BODY OF CHRIST,
THE PEOPLE IN THE CHURCH

BELOW IS TRULY
THE BODY OF CHRIST
SACRAMENTALLY
PRESENT IN THE
EUCARIST OR HOLY COMMUNION.

When we say AMEN as we receive Holy Communion we are both affirming that together we are the Body of Christ, and that Christ himself is present truly in the host and the chalice which we eat and drink.

In the mass we have the power truly to be formed into the One Body of Christ as we worship God the Father, through Jesus in the power of the Spirit and He is formed in us by living the Word of God (Christ) day by day.
