WORD OF LIFE

And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (Mt 28:20)

Jesus spoke these words to the disciples after he had given them the task of bringing his message to the whole world. He was well aware that he was sending them out like sheep among wolves and that they would face obstruction and persecution (see Mt 10:16-22). For this reason he didn't want to leave them alone in their mission. So, at the very moment he was leaving, he promised to stay! They will no longer see him with their eyes, no longer hear his voice, will not be able to touch him, but he will be present in their midst, just as before and indeed more than before.

Confirmations and First Holy Communions We have enjoyed one session already with our new Archbishop last Saturday week and today there is another one for children from St. Anne's Primary School and other schools. We should thank above all those who have worked so hard to make these a success, the catechists, the musicians, those who plan and produce the liturgy and PowerPoints. At 9.30am mass on Corpus Christi 22 June, three other candidates will receive these sacraments as well. We pray that the candidates and their families deepen their faith and love
